McVEY HAS MORE TIME CHARGED UP
W. R. "Bill" McVey, an old offender, and who has been arrested many times for liquor law since he was sentenced to serve from 10 to 20 years for murder in the second degree, Friday was again convicted by a jury in the second criminal court of violating the liquor law and fined $500. Judge Harsh then raised his bond from $250 to $1,000 and ordered the sheriff to hold him in jail until the bond is made. McVey will make a motion for a new trial in this case.

McVey was recently convicted of violating the liquor law in first criminal court and sentenced to serve 6 months in the workhouse and fined $100. Motion for a new trial was overruled and he served notice of appeal.

The murder sentence against McVey is being held up pending a decision of his appeal to the supreme court. There is not another offender in Shelby county who has as many sentences and charges against him as McVey unless it is E. A. Laughter, who has sentences pending against him in both federal and criminal courts.

Battery A, 114th, and Battery B, 115th, are the chief Memphis units. Other Memphians are scattered throughout the 114th artillery. Company A, 114th machine gun regiment is 95 per cent Memphians and a move is on foot to bring them here also.

ANDERSONS GET $12,000 VERDICT
A jury in the Second division of the circuit court Friday gave a verdict in favor of the Andersons for $12,000. The Memphis Street Railway company is the defendant in the case.

The sum of $12,000 was awarded as a judgment on the part of the jury in the case which brought the lawsuit. $1,000 was awarded Z. E. Anderson, administrator of the estate of Harry York, who was killed in an automobile accident. $2,000 was awarded Mrs. Z. E. Anderson, and $1,000 was given to Miss Eugenia Anderson, who was injured in the accident.

Anderson, the administrator, sued for $5,000 on his own behalf and $5,000 as administrator. Mrs. Ada Anderson sued for $15,000 damages, and Miss Eugenia Anderson for $5,000, making a total of $25,000 asked for as damages.

It was alleged that a car of the Memphis Street Railway company ran into an automobile occupied by the Andersons and the York youth, killing the boy and injuring the other occupants.

Anderson & Crabtree represented the Andersons, while McKinney Barton appeared for the Memphis Street Railway company.

HENNING AND GRAHAM ON SEA TOWARD HOME
Maj. Max Henning, accompanied by Capt. Frank Graham, sailed from Paris, France, on Feb. 11, according to cablegrams received by their relatives, and will arrive in New York about Feb. 20, en route home. Maj. Henning is recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Henning received the cablegram: "Sailed on Huron" from the major under date of Feb. 11. Both officers are Memphis physicians who went over with Lieut.-Col. Edward C. Mitchell's base hospital unit shortly after the outbreak of the war.

The unit probably will remain in Paris until peace is declared, according to letters from Maj. Henning to his relatives. Both Maj. Henning and Capt. Graham will resume their practice of medicine upon their arrival in the city, which is expected before March 1.

Writ Of Habeas Corpus Off For Judge's Birthday
Judge Jacob S. Galloway, of the probate court, dean of Tennessee judges, is today celebrating his 81st birthday at his home, 219 North Garland place. The judge has been confined at his home with illness for more than a week.

As today is St. Valentine's, the judge says he was his mother's Valentine just 81 years ago today.

The judge is presiding over the only probate court in Tennessee—distinction No. 1. He is the oldest judge in the commonwealth; distinction No. 2. He is the oldest judge both in point of age and seniority in the state; distinction No. 3. He is the best judge in the state; distinction No. 4. And the prisoner looks upon him personally as the ancient and honorable writ of habeas corpus; distinction No. 5.

Judge Galloway has been judge of the same court for 22 years, having recently been elected his fourth term of eight years as judge of the probate court. The first four terms he had opposition, but always came out on top with big majorities, but at the last election his would-be opponents lost heart and all turned in and helped him pile up a unanimous vote for him.

Judge Galloway never takes a vacation but is at his office every morning in the year except Sundays.

GORDONS SEEK DAMAGES.
Louis Gordon, by his mother, Florence Gordon, and Mrs. Rose Gordon, through attorneys Goodman and Williams, Friday filed suit for damages in the circuit court for $25,000. J. T. Hinton & Sons, Inc., being the defendants.

It is alleged that on June 4, 1918, the youth, while riding a bicycle from school to his home was run down by an automobile belonging to the defendant company at Fourth street and Union avenue, sustaining a broken leg and receiving injuries about the head.

RENKERT CASE FALLS.
The case against C. M. Renkert, druggist, and Paul Koon, jointly indicted, was brought up in Second criminal court Friday. The two were indicted on a charge of violating the four-mile law. The state announced that it did not have a case sufficient to convict and the judge then instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty.
